WENDY LUHABE is a Social Entrepreneur, a Thought Leader, Change Maker, a Mentor for younger generations, and a committed Pioneer for the Economic Empowerment of Women and passionate about South Africa and her possibility.

Wendy Luhabe is one of South Africa's most accomplished business icons. Her pioneering contribution to South Africa's young democracy is legendary; it revolutionized the participation of women in the economy when they became investors (for the first time). She also pioneered a fund to provide women enterprises with access to capital and business intelligence. She chairs and is a director of some of South Africa's leading institutions, including being Chancellor of the University of Johannesburg and the Johannesburg Stock Exchange.

Wendy Luhabe is also an author, a mentor and coach for younger generations, an international speaker, and a regular commentator on South Africa's changing socio-economic landscape. She strives for the women of the world to be truly free, to live purposefully and to shape history. Learn more
