26 women around the world shared an inspiring sentence on the theme of "A Woman's Investment" during October.

Each woman has something unique to say to you. If you are inspired, please consider donating $10 to help me raise money for a microfinance project in the Philippines, and by sharing this on your blog, Twitter or elsewhere. You can help me raise money for a group of women living in poverty to change their lives, and the lives of those around them.
